

Resilience During Workforce Restructuring: A Community Conversation

Wednesday, July 8 | 5:30–6:30 PM | Northwood Idea Center

Workforce restructuring can bring out:	It can also reveal something else:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fear • Anxiety • Frustration • Sadness • Grief • Uncertainty 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strength • Resilience • Compassion • Generosity • Connection • Support

Whether you have been directly affected by recent workforce restructuring, are supporting someone who has, or you simply want to support your community - you are welcome.

- Join us for a facilitated community conversation about how we can support individuals, families, and our community during workforce restructuring.
- Together, we'll explore needs, strengths, resources, and opportunities to help one another navigate change and move forward with resilience.

Because while we cannot always control the changes around us, we can choose how we show up for one another. We can struggle well together.
